Case No. 3:12-CV-02099-JST-NC

ASUS' MOTION TO EXTEND DUE DATE
FOR COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S
JANUARY 24, 2014 ORDER (D. I. 193)

1 The Court's January 24, 2014 order (D.I. 193) required ASUS to produce by February 7, 2 2014, emails from various persons. As discussed at the January 28, 2014 hearing, during which
3 the Court gave further guidance on its Order, the Chinese New Year holidays began January 30,
4 2014 and ran through February 4th, 2014. As a result, and given the fact that Taiwan is on the 5 other side of the International Date Line, ASUSTeK/ACI were unable to reach several of the 6 relevant individuals before they departed for the holiday period. While most returned earlier
7 this week, simple collection of the emails is still ongoing. Further, the volume is much larger
8 than expected and is in excess of 400Gb. These tasks were unable to be completed in the short
9 effective time frame. Accordingly, ASUS moves for a one week extension for ASUSTeK/ACI
10 to comply with the Court's Order.

11 ASUSTeK/ACI attempted to meet and confer with Round Rock on this issue and 12 explained the effects of the Chinese New Year and the volume on collection. ASUSTeK/ACI
13 first sent an email requesting agreement on Thursday, February 6. On Friday, February 7, a 14 series of exchanges occurred in which Round Rock first indicated that it was not inclined to 15 oppose (but did not agree), then requested a copy of ASUSTeK/ACI's proposed filing, then
16 indicated that Round Rock would not stipulate to the extension and would oppose any motion
17 that did not comply with Round Rock's suggested edits. Not wanting to be out of compliance
18 with this Court's Orders, ASUSTeK/ACI proceeded to file the present motion.
